

New Appointments

Source: Gold Coast Business News
Date: April 2009

KENTON CAMPBELL

KENTON Campbell has been appointed as the patron for Lifeline Gold Coast's new Business Lifeline program which aims to support small and medium business. Campbell's work and reputation in the local community led the charity organisation to approach the coffee king. Lifeline Gold Coast was looking for a patron who would bring a valuable profile to the program and have experience building a business from the ground up.

