THE opening of the 34th Zarraffa's Coffee shop, at Ferry Road, is a blessing for the many busy commuters who travel the major arterial road each morning.

The store is the second owned by the Heal Group and franchisee Shane Heal says its location, next to the BP petrol station and other convenience shops, makes getting the morning coffee that much easier for people travelling on their way to work.

"Parents taking the kids to school or who don't have time to race inside major shopping centres will find the ease of the location a plus," he says.

With Zarraffa's Coffee's comprehensive refreshment range on offer, they'll be spoilt for choice.

Try the traditional, such as a latte – an espresso with hot texturised milk, a flat white – an espresso topped with hot milk, or an Americano – filtered hot water with espresso laid on top.

Sweet toothers will covet the caramelised cappuccino, which is laced with caramel syrup and topped with caramel fudge.

Or, spice things up with a chai latte topped with ground cinnamon.

Supplement your morning caffeine hit with a quick and easy breakfast.

Enjoy a ham and cheese croissant, bacon and egg toasted sandwich, raisin toast, banana bread, or date and honey loaf.

Zarraffa's Coffee Ferry Road is on the corner of Cotlew Street and Ferry Road, Southport.

It's open from 5.30am to 9pm Monday to Saturday and 6am to 7pm on Sunday.
